Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Awards Contract

SAN DIEGO — Intelesis Technologies Corporation of San Diego, California, is being awarded a $13,716,287 indefinite delivery/indefinite quantity-type contract with cost-plus-fixed-fee pricing for research and development targeted at advanced technologies in human and information system interaction. The research will focus on advanced Command, Control, Communications, Computers, Information, Surveillance and Reconnaissance (C<sup>4</sup>ISR) architecture. Hollis Technology Group, L.L.C., of Fairfax Station, Virginia, will be a major subcontractor. This contract contains no options. Work will be performed at the contractor's facility in San Diego, California (93%) and at the subcontractor's facility in Fairfax Station, Virginia (7%). The period of performance is from September 27, 2000 through September 26, 2005. Contract funds will not expire at the end of the current fiscal year. This contract is the result of an acceptable proposal submitted by Intelesis Technologies Corporation in response to Broad Agency Announcement (BAA) No. N66001-98-X-6905 entitled "Advanced Technologies in Human and Information System Interaction." To date, 110 white papers have been received and 35 have been selected for award. The contracting activity is the Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center San Diego (N66001-00-D-5094).
